Foster-Powell Street Tree Inventory: No action

Community Garden: No action

Foster Window Project- Matthew Micetic- Red Castle Games/Cafe Red will be the site of our next window project. The call is already out on the website and you can enter in person at Red Castle Games, mail it to them or email to the 62ndgarden@gmail.com. We are asking you to tell us a make believe story. Anyone can enter a story and, hopefully, a picture. Entries will be received until June 20th We'll narrow it down to three finalists at the next FPNA meeting and at the Mt Scott Arleta Meeting and then put it to the online vote. We have changed out their brown paper windows to purple curtains which are repurposed table clothes that they had on hand.

6:55 Representative reports

- Holgate Library: Vicki lets us know there is the FoPo tree inventory in the Holgate library lobby. Donated books will be used for library fundraiser. Page-turners will be reading Julian Barnes' "The sense of an ending" Saturday June 20th 10am to noon. Library events can be found at www.multcolib.org/events/

- Treasurer: nothing at this time

- Land Use: Shaun presents lot split proposal at 6135 SE Gladstone which is zoned R 2.5. Neighbors are concerned with lack of requirement for off street parking. Shaun will draft a document expressing that concern.

- Transportation: Dan reads email about Streetscape timeline. Spring 2016 start construction with an estimated completion date 6 months later. Dan fielded questions about possible crosswalk on 80th and Holgate, which will require Dan to contact Rick from PDOT.

- Foster-Green Eco-District: Nothing at this time.

7:12 Open Discussion. August 8th will be a City Graffiti Cleanup. Matthew from red Castle Games explains that local businesses have been burglarized by criminals cutting through the HVAC systems from the top of the buildings. Report any suspicious activities to the Police. Also the Foster Powell Business Association is working on garbage grants to provide more waste cans along Foster to help cut down on litter.

7:19 Motion to adjourn: Dan motions, Eric seconds. None opposed.
